Which movie makes the blood race faster? In this post, we'll find out which films have been rated as 'too hot' for most countries. From the infamous Pulp Fiction to the scandalous Fifty Shades of Grey, we debunk myths and reveal how movies can be understood as a reflection of society's gender roles. This list is by no means exhaustive but it gives us an idea about some notable films that deal with taboos or otherwise controversial topics. We hope you enjoy reading it as much as we did researching for this list! Informative and factual blog posts go hand in hand with tutorials. In this post, we have a tutorial on how to combine Adobe Photoshop and Illustrator. We have created a beautiful tutorial on how to create a cover for your Ebook using as an example the book 'Ender's Game' by Orson Scott Card. We will be launching our EBook service in January 2015 and we'll be providing covers for your books as our products are finished.
